

◀ Rare Basics

Rare Basics has supplied illuminated mannequins to Selfridges' Spirit department. The mannequins feature a computerised colour changing facility, allowing different colours to be created. The light source inside the body forms is designed by AVR Colour Master and comprises an aluminium wheel carrying coloured dichroic glass, attached to a 12V stepper motor, which passes over a 50W halogen lamp and gives six colours plus white.